

Father Richard's Homily Summation

Palm Sunday

Mother Theresa once said, "The greatest distance is that between the head and the heart". For those who have seen the movie "The Passion of the Christ", and those who hear today's Gospel about the passion, the event is vivid in our minds. However, for Christ's passion to reach our heart, we must reflect deeply upon how this Paschal mystery takes part in our lives. It is indeed a long road. But when we reach the end of it, we will understand how truly great is the cost of love.
